

(name of email sender has been changed)

This sender is not "Catching Up!!!!". Beware of someone asking for a favour.

The email recipient writes:

The address I have for her from a course in 2015 is (Diane Carol)[@aol.com](mailto:(Diane Carol)@aol.com)

This is sent from (Diane Carol)[@gmail.com](mailto:(Diane Carol)@gmail.com)

Sometimes I receive an email from the person saying disregard any messages because their email has been hacked.
